“Welcome” is not just a word at Dalby’s COUNTRY PATHFINDER MOTOR INN. It’s an experience. Hosts Robert and Jane Grieve were both bred to Australia’s legendary country hospitality. We serve it up at the COUNTRY PATHFINDER along with Cleanliness, Comfort, Quiet, Friendly Service and Delicious Home-Cooked Meals.

We believe it’s the little things that matter – like having a Nespresso coffee pod machine in each room; a clean iron and spare fresh pillows and blankets in the large hanging cupboard that allows a subtle wisp of rose fragrance to escape as the doors are opened. We understand that super-comfortable beds and black-out curtains create the perfect environment for a good night’s sleep. We provide the basics that are the hallmarks of excellent accommodation – a hair dryer, toiletries, fluffy towels, tea, coffee & biscuits, a microwave. Each room stylishly decorated with funky original artworks and bright furnishings. Split system air conditioning.

Free WiFi; Austar TV; undercover parking. Meals served either to your room or al fresco under the stars, however you fancy. These are the things that set the COUNTRY PATHFINDER apart in its quest to provide accommodation with panache at a reasonable price.

At the COUNTRY PATHFINDER you’re not just someone, not just in any motel. You are our guest.
